

WHAT IS YOUR NORTHWOODS: PERSONALITY

Northwoods Gumshoe Winter Itinerary

Your first stop in Langlade County should be the Antigo/Langlade County Chamber of Commerce to pick up maps, community information and useful advice on family-friendly activities, attractions and trails. We can give you some great suggestions on everything from places to go fishing to the best place to get the perfect souvenir.

Day 1

Morning

Waking up in your room at the Langlade County lodging option you chose starts your vacation of discovery. First, find the perfect restaurant for a wonderful meal, good service, and a lot of conversation about the latest news, sports, and more. This is a great way to get started learning more about the area.

Mid-Day

Shopping, and searching for antiques, in Langlade County is one of the best ways to learn more about the area. Shop owners and staff are a great resource when you're trying to learn about the Northwoods. Visit The Old Hen House Glass Craft Shop, Springbrook Laser & Engraving, The Blue Awning, or Schroeder's Gifts to find locally made products. Pick out something for yourself, or find a gift for a friend while you learn more about what Langlade County has to offer.

Evening

You would love to find a restaurant that is considered one of the best kept secrets of the northwoods. With full menus, delicious food, and a complete line of refreshments, many of the local options will satisfy your taste buds.

Day 2

Morning

Today you are looking for quiet meal, so stop at any of the restaurants around Langlade County. Depending on how much time you want to spend, you can choose to eat in a comfortable dining room, or take something back to your room.

Mid-Day

One of the best places to learn about the history of Langlade County is the Antigo Public Library. Spend the day looking up information in the newspaper indexes, old yearbooks, and much more of their resource material. It is amazing what you can learn from opening an old book. Find a long lost relative, or make a new friend at the Antigo Public Library as you watch the snow falling outside the windows.

Evening

All of the restaurants in the area have tasty meals in interesting settings. No matter where you eat, you will leave with a good feeling. You can choose from a full menu of delicious meals and enjoy your food while sitting beside the warm fireplace.

Day 3

Morning

Enjoy breakfast before you head out to continue learning about the northwoods. With varied breakfast menus, you are sure to find an eatery that will have something you're really craving.

Mid-Day

A unique way to see some of the northwoods is by way of Brandt's Sleigh & Wagon Rides. Located in Bryant, they offer winter sleigh rides for up to 20 people, complete with bonfire in the woods. Bring your own food, prepared at one of our local deli's, to enjoy on the ride, or beside the fire. After your ride, come back into town for an afternoon full of history at the Langlade County Historical Society's Museum. Featuring displays that highlights the history of the area, including the Deleglise Cabin and a 440 Locomotive on-site. Take a step back in time at the museum.

Evening

You are in search of the perfectly grilled steak for dinner tonight. The meal wouldn't be complete without a baked potato and salad. Search out a local supper club to find an interesting, unique place to dine.
