Chamber Investment Guide

Why Grow with us?

Chamber Gift Certificates: Helps keep the dollars in our local economy while supporting participating businesses with revenue and additional publicity.

Get involved: Investors and staff are always welcome to become an Ambassador, as well as the opportunity to volunteer for any of our standing and special events, which help further the Chamber's mission and better serve you.

Business Directory: Updated real-time on our Chamber website and promoted in the annual Visitor Guide and specialty publications. The basic listing included enhanced options available.

Networking: Help put a face to your company's name with opportunities to meet and mingle with fellow investors and the community, such as luncheons, workshops, meetups, job fairs, special events, and many more!

Exposure: Opportunity to display advertising and business materials in our lobby for thousands of visitors stopping at the Visitor Center each year.

Post Jobs Online: Add job postings to our website and our Facebook group page for public viewing, and we can also share through our other channels.

Referrals: We are proud to promote and refer Chamber investors and services.

Spreading the Word: Ribbon cuttings, groundbreakings, and open houses to publicize your new or existing business or grand opening, sharing your special promotions, news, and events through our social media and email, and special promotional events throughout the year.

Tradeshows and Expos: Opportunity to promote your businesses while volunteering at the Antigo/Langlade County Chamber of Commerce & Visitors Center booth at several tradeshows and expos we attend each year.

Keeping in the Loop: Email messages with updates and information about the Chamber, welcoming new member investors, informational articles, upcoming events, and more.

I want to help grow the community

Based on my skills and interests, I want to get more involved in the Chamber's efforts through the following committee:

Ambassador

Welcome new businesses, enlist investors and act as representatives at Chamber events.

Chamber Events

Work with Chamber staff liaisons on the execution of the assigned events.

LC Rising (Young Professionals)

Engage and attract young leaders to join LC Rising. Plan social activities for networking and community service projects throughout the year to help grow and develop Lantlode County. Open to men and women, aged 21-45, employed in the Lantlode County Area.

Investor Relations

Identify & develop value-added services for chamber investors.

Lunch & Learns

Once-a-quarter professional development opportunities for local businesses to help train and grow themselves and their employees.

Shop Local/Retail Promotions

Shop Local campaign helps to encourage shoppers to spend their dollars throughout the community to grow local businesses.

Recruiting

Actively recruiting new investors, developing strategies for reaching prospective investors, and assisting staff with the development of investor leads.
